

Client

West Park Hospital.
Toronto, Ontario.

Materials

Stainless steel, sandblasted,
coloured glass, mirrored glass,
6m x 2m wide.

The 'Waterfall' Donor Recognition Mural was created to compliment the Recognition Rainbow sculpture and to honour the donors. The reflective materials and patterns symbolize water and the rainbow springs upward from within the mural. Images of the people viewing the sculpture are reflected in the wall, drawing them into the community of giving.